Terms and Conditions

IMPORTANT INFO ABOUT CUBA: Cuba is a wonderful exotic country but it's a "third world" developing country. Cubans are extremely friendly and warm people but not yet exposed to international standards of customer service especially regarding punctuality. A smile and a "Buenos dias" goes a long way. We'll make our best efforts to see and do everything in our brochure itinerary however there will be times when we may adjust timing, change the order of activities or face unexpected closures. Every day will be an adventure and that's part of the charm and beauty of seeing Cuba today before it changes. Be prepared to enjoy the unexpected, and in the case of delays or long lines, remember that you're visiting a place that has been closed off to the rest of the world for over half a century.

Waiver of Liability

Accidents can happen anywhere, even on a trip to the grocery store. However, traveling anywhere outside the United States, even with Travelphile Tours ("TT"), can involve risks and hazards that are far greater than usual. By your placing a check mark on our tour registration page that you've read and agree to our Terms and Conditions, you agree to assume all the risks of traveling in Cuba, however great or slight they may be. Because of how and where we travel, and because of the forces of nature (including human nature), you understand that injuries, illnesses, losses, and inconveniences can occur in places where there may be no ready assistance or medical care. You also understand that Travelphile Tours, and all of its vendors and their employees, agents, officers, contractors, and representatives (to avoid repeating this "formula" throughout this document, we will just refer to all of these folks as "us," "we," or "our") do not provide any medical, health, or related services, so you agree to take care of your own health needs, and the needs of your spouse and family (if any).

In consideration for the opportunity to participate in a tour with TT, not only do you understand and agree to everything we just said in the previous paragraph, but you also agree, on behalf of yourself and your family members, your spouse, your heirs and/or your assigns (to avoid repeating this "formula" throughout this document, we will just refer to all of these folks as "you") to waive and release forever any claim you could ever assert against us. We do our best to provide that your travel experience will be safe, pleasurable and fun. Nevertheless, you agree that if something goes wrong, or you have any disputes with us regarding anything, currently or in the future, by participating in a tour with TT, you have waived and released any claims you could have brought against us. Part of the fun, and part of the risk, of travel is that food, water, lodging, and local customs can be very different from what you are used to. Thus, this waiver and release includes, by way of example, and not by way of limitation, any claims you may have regarding: tour accommodations; food service, quality or quantity; transportation; sightseeing; or your itinerary, which is subject to change without notice if deemed necessary by Travelphile Tours.

Other examples of the claims you are waiving and releasing include, without limitation: labor strikes; theft; political instability; poor roads or public services or transportation; actions by police, customs or local law officials; inclement weather; and civil unrest, even events of war, sabotage, or terrorism, or other accidental harm to you. By checking the space on our tour registration page that you've read and agree that you have waived and released and cannot ever bring a claim against us for anything, including without limitation property damage, personal injury, damage to your reputation, discrimination, harassment, failure to accommodate you, emotional distress, outrage, or even death, or for any other event or situation that occurs, or any other claim that you may have, even if it is not specifically listed in this document. Because it is impossible to foresee everything that can possibly go wrong, you agree that you have released and waived all claims you may ever have against us, even claims that are unknown, unknowable, unanticipated, or unforeseeable.

By checking the space on our tour registration page that you've read and agree that if someone asserts a claim or demand or cause of action against you that arises out of or relates to this tour, you agree that you have waived and released any right you may have had to seek contribution or indemnity or defense from us. Although we want everyone to have a good time, it sometimes happens that someone participating in a tour does things that are incompatible with the safety, comfort or convenience of other people. If we determine that such circumstances exist, you agree that we have the right and discretion to expel someone, even you, from a tour at any time, and that you have waived and released any rights that you may have to make a claim against us.

You agree that the information provided during the tour is for your own personal enjoyment and not for professional use or personal gain. Recording guide lectures by any method (electronic, note-taking, etc.) for professional purposes or personal gain and soliciting business from tour members and vendors while on tour or afterwards are strictly prohibited. Being on a tour with other people is not a private activity, therefore you acknowledge and permit that photos and videos of yourself and your family members may appear in albums and scrapbooks, on websites, and even in TT's promotional information, and that by checking the space on our tour registration page that you've read and agree, you have waived and released any rights that you may have to make a claim against us if and when such a thing may occur.

To alleviate any confusion, even though we will be in Cuba, Travelphile Tours Terms and Conditions are governed by the laws of the State of Texas, excluding its conflicts laws, and you agree that the sole jurisdiction for any disputes you may have with us is in Texas superior court. By checking the space on our tour registration page that you've read and agree to our Terms and Conditions means that you have read and fully understand our Terms and Conditions. It also means that you know that this document is intended to have a binding legal effect on you. You further understand that if you alter this document in any way, we may decline to allow you to participate in this tour and/or any future tours offered by us. You also acknowledge that you have read and fully understand and agree to be bound by the Travelphile Tours Conditions, which are incorporated by this reference, and that you agree to be bound by all the terms and conditions related to this tour.

The novel coronavirus, COVID-19 ("COVID-19"), has been reported to be very contagious. While the state of medical knowledge around COVID-19 is evolving, the virus is believed to spread mainly from person-to-person contact and evidence has shown it can cause serious and potentially life-threatening illness and even death. Travelphile Tours(TT) is taking precautionary measures in line with science-based health guidelines to protect against the spread of the virus. Nevertheless, TT cannot prevent you from becoming exposed to, contracting, or spreading COVID-19 while on an TT tour. Therefore, if you choose to go on tour with TT you may be exposing yourself to and/or increasing your risk of contracting or spreading COVID-19.

Before, during, or after your tour with TT, you may also experience unexpected costs associated with COVID-19, such as, but not limited to, medical care, food and lodging during an unexpected quarantine imposed by local health or government officials, missed flights, airport closures, transportation cancellations or delays, etc. You will be solely responsible for the expenses associated with these circumstances. In the event you experience this, TT, to the extent possible, may assist you in securing food, lodging, or transportation but will not be responsible for the associated costs and you will be required to reimburse TT for any additional costs it incurs on your behalf.

By checking the space that you have read and agree to TT's Terms and Conditions on our registration page, you acknowledge the contagious nature of COVID-19 and the unknown expenses that may be a result of COVID-19, and voluntarily assume the risk that you may be exposed to or infected by COVID-19 or experience unanticipated costs associated with COVID-19 by participating in the TT tour. You also voluntarily assume the risk that a COVID-19 infection may result in personal injury, illness, permanent disability, and death. You understand that the risk of becoming infected by COVID-19 on an TT tour may result from the actions, omissions, or negligence of myself and others, including, but not limited to TT employees, TT partners (and partner employees) and other passengers. You understand that complete knowledge of the risk factors of contracting COVID-19 is not known and that unknown or unanticipated risks may result in injury, illness, death or any other loss. You agree that having considered these risks, you wish to participate in the tour, and freely and voluntarily assume complete personal responsibility for the risk of expense, exposure, illness, and death due to COVID-19, even if such injuries or death occur in a manner that is not foreseeable at the time this agreement is signed.

You for yourself, and on behalf of your and their heirs, assigns, personal representatives and next of kin voluntarily agree to assume all of the foregoing risks and accept sole responsibility for any injury (including, but not limited to personal injury, disability, and death), illness, damage, loss, claim, liability or expense of any kind that you may experience or incur in connection with my TT tour and its activities ("Claims"). I hereby release, agree not to sue, discharge and hold harmless TT, its employees, agents, and representatives, of and from the Claims. Including all liabilities, claims, actions, damages, costs or expenses of any kind arising out of or related to it. You understand and agree that this release includes any Claims based on the actions, omissions, or negligence of TT, its employees, agents and representatives, whether a COVID-19 infection occurs before, during, or after participation in any TT tour.

You agree that if any portion of this agreement is found to be void or unenforceable, the remaining portions shall remain in full force and effect. No additions, deletions, or changes can be made to the release form, and initialing the registration page is a requirement for joining the tour.
